

JORDAN-CLAIRE GREEN

When Jordan-Claire Green walked into the 12 Dogs of Christmas production office and read, the producers and director almost jumped for joy because she was so good, and looked so perfect for the role of “Emma”. When the original actress had to bow out the production had 24 hours to replace her – and Jordan-Claire got the part on the spot. Literally three days after her reading, Jordan-Claire had hopped on a plane to Maine with her mother for the first day of filming. Getting the part of “Emma “ fulfilled a dream for Jordan-Claire as well because one of the goals of this young actress was to be in a Christmas movie. . Jordan-Claire won her first fans when she played “Michelle” in School of Rock and has since to go on to star in this year’s Come Away Home as well as make guest appearances on such television shows as Arrested Development. She is also recognized as the ear-phone wearing blonde girl in the “Build-A-Bear” commercials who builds her bear wearing earphones too.
